The California Insurance Code requires an insurer to provide uninsured motorist coverage in each bodily injury liability policy it issues covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle. Those provisions also permit the insurer and the applicant to delete such coverage completely or to delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name. Uninsured Motorist coverage insures the insured, his or her heirs, or legal representatives for all sums within the limits established by law, which the person or persons are legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury, including any resulting sickness, disease, or death, to the insured from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle not owned or operated by the insured or resident of the same household. An uninsured motor vehicle includes an underinsured motor vehicle as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 11580.0 of the California Insurance Code.

DELETION AGREEMENT

Pursuant to the authority of the California Insurance Code, the undersigned, a named insured in the policy, and Commerce West Insurance Company providing the insurance agree to the deletion of all coverage and obligation to defend, and including specifically uninsured motorist coverage as described above. The undersigned further agrees to reimburse the company providing the insurance for any payment made to a loss payee because of a loss arising from the use of operation of any vehicle by any person designated by name above.
